

A N N O U N C E M E N T

Kristi House's Project GOLD Adding Services for Males & Specialized Health Care Needs

In addition to girls and young women at risk for or involved in human trafficking, Project GOLD is serving...

- Boys and young men (up to age 26)
- Expectant and new mothers with specialized prenatal and maternal programs
- Individuals with substance use disorders
- For the community: education programs to address labor trafficking identification and services in South Florida

Providing...

- Evidence-based risk and needs screenings and assessments
- Specialized behavioral and medical health services
- Advocacy, care management, mentoring programs
- Life skills, job training and career development programs
- Linkages to other needed services

Bringing together experienced key partners...

- Led by Project GOLD Director Ricardo Rubiales, LCSW, rrubiales@kristihouse.org
- University of Miami's specialized THRIVE Clinic for human trafficking survivors
- Maureen Kenny, Ph.D., nationally recognized researcher and professor at Florida International University who will oversee evaluation
- Cristobal Perez, anti-trafficking, education and child protection professional leading statewide efforts and national programs around labor trafficking

Accepting Referrals: ProjectGOLDReferrals@KristiHouse.org or (305) 547-6874

Made possible with major support from: U.S. Department of Justice, Office for Victims of Crime • The Children's Trust • Regions Bank • Miami-Dade Impact Collaborative • Bradesco Bank • Victims of Crime Act grant funding from Office of the Attorney General, State of Florida

@KRISTIHOUSECAC

KRISTIHOUSE.ORG/PROJECTGOLD

There is no charge for Project GOLD services. Transportation is available.